Are you interested in becoming a volunteer? Please let us know by checking the appropriate boxes.

Thank you.

Newsletter

- A monthly publication of the AIWC requires all sorts of skills: word processing, writing, editing, proofreading, layout, and distribution/mailing.

Community Services

This group participates in activities such as selection of charities and raises funds by planning and conducting fundraising events.

Accounting

Help for the Treasurer with bookkeeping skills is always needed.

Living in Lausanne

This committee is responsible for the annual orientation program for newly arrived English speaking residents in the Lausanne area.

Office Volunteer

- The AIWC needs individuals to assist two hours per month in the office to answer phones, open mail, and perform other clerical duties.

Program Committee

Volunteers in this committee plan, design, and coordinate speakers for the monthly program.

Hospitality Committee

If you are interested in meeting and welcoming people, then this is the committee for you. Volunteers are needed as area hostesses or just to aid the committee in performing its various functions.

Membership Committee

Volunteers work together performing a variety of functions, such as processing of applications, data entry, generating reports for other committees, etc.

I hereby apply for membership in the AIWC of Lausanne. I understand that it is my responsibility to become familiar with its Constitution and Bylaws.
